Fireless Treat: A Creative Culinary Competition with No Fire

On October 8th, 2026, at Abdul Kalam Bhavan, the Department of Humanities and Sciences at PVKK Institute of Technology (Autonomous), Anantapur, is hosting a creative fireless cooking competition called "Fireless Treat." Teams of two people were assigned to participate. Through the creation of delectable treats without the use of fire, the competition seeks to give competitors a chance to demonstrate their inventiveness, culinary prowess, presentation skills, and creative thinking. The event encourages a creative and interesting approach to food preparation by pushing participants to experiment with various ingredients and preparation methods.

The "Fireless Treat" competition is intended to serve as a platform for the development of teamwork, coordination, time management, creativity, and presentation skills in addition to being a culinary exercise. Within the allotted time, participants will work in pairs to prepare and present their creations.

Attractive cash prizes for the best treats are another feature of the event that encourages healthy competition among attendees. It is anticipated that the program will unite students and members of the academic community in a fun and engaging setting.

The Department of Humanities and Sciences keeps pushing students to engage in imaginative, hands-on, and skill-oriented activities outside of the traditional classroom setting through programs like "Fireless Treat." The Department of Humanities and Sciences cordially invites everyone to participate and anticipates a lively celebration of ingenuity, collaboration, and culinary innovation.

Cash Awards Given to Fireless Treat Winners

The innovative fireless cooking competition, "Fireless Treat," came to a joyous conclusion with prizes being given to the winning students. The first, second, and third cash prizes were given to the worthy winners by the principal of PVKK Institute of Technology (Autonomous) in appreciation of their inventiveness, presentation, teamwork, and culinary abilities.

A unique moment of gratitude was added to the event during the prize distribution ceremony, where the winners were praised for their creative and eye-catching fireless food preparations. The principal encouraged the students to keep engaging in such imaginative and skill-focused activities, praising their enthusiasm and active participation. The distribution of cash prizes further motivated the students and brought the competition to a memorable conclusion.

The Department of Humanities and Sciences extends its congratulations to all of the winners and participants for their passionate participation and admirable efforts in making "Fireless Treat" a fun and successful event.
